Purpose:
The Airport Purchasing Group (APG) established the David Wagner Scholarship Award Program for the purpose of providing funds to individual APG members who are interested in furthering the development of their purchasing skills and professionalism; while ascribing to the values of and participation in APG as demonstrated by Mr. David Wagner, one of APG's founding members, and the first APG President.

Mr. David Wagner: Mr. Wagner is one of the founding members of the Airport Purchasing Group (APG.) He retired as the Purchasing Manager after 14 years at the Greater Orlando Aviation Authority and another 28 years in Purchasing Management; much of that time spent with the military.

David is a visionary, having the enthusiasm to coordinate an association of purchasing professionals for the purpose of networking, sharing experiences, and continuously improving the performance of member airport purchasing operations. Among the values Mr. Wagner demonstrated were his interest in member input; his professionalism in the field of procurement; his high ethical standards; and his dedication to supporting the success of APG through participating in various committees, pursuing initiatives and leadership.

Program Administration:
The Board members of APG, facilitated through the Professional Development Chairperson, administers this program:
• The Professional Development Chairperson shall solicit applications for scholarship awards once per year.
• The Professional Development Chairperson shall provide the completed applications to the APG Board for consideration.
• The applications shall be valid for the current calendar year.
• Scholarship awards will be made based on a majority vote of the APG Board members.

Program Policies:
• Award applications must be complete for consideration.
• Scholarship award of $500.00 shall be available for annual conference costs (registration, airfare, hotel, etc.)
• Typically only one scholarship award shall be made a year, however, with the approval of a simple majority of the APG Board; more than one award may be approved.
• Scholarship awards are non-transferable.
• With the exception of registration, scholarship awards will be administered as reimbursements upon presentation of valid receipts to the APG Treasurer.

Applicant Qualifications:
• Applicant must have been an APG member for twelve months prior to the date an application is submitted.
• Applicant must be an APG member in good standing at the time of application.
• The application will be considered only if membership dues are paid through the year of the conference.

Application:
• Applicant must submit a complete scholarship award application and any attachments. Failure to do so may result in disqualification. Clarifications may be requested.
• Completed applications should be submitted by the date noted on the form to receive consideration.
